

North Carolina Strawberry Association

Application for Scholarship

The intent of this scholarship is to promote future leadership in the strawberry industry. Scholarship recipients shall be:

- A high school senior or current college student.
- Accepted to, or currently enrolled in, a land grant university.
- Interested in or having declared a major in a program of study directly related to the strawberry industry (For example, small fruit production, marketing, food science, nutrition, entomology, agronomy, etc).

The Scholarship Award for 2012 will be $750. The award will be paid to the University and directed to the recipient's account for payment of tuition and fees. This scholarship is renewable; however, a new application must be submitted each year.

The Scholarship Application on the website is a fillable pdf file for Part I and Part III; responses may be typed in. The form may then either be saved and emailed or printed and mailed. "Application Part II in Word" is a Word document that may be used to provide requested information on Organizations, Activities, and Leadership, on Employment, and for the requested Cover Letter. However, use of this model is not required. It is not necessary to send a high school/college transcript.

Application must be emailed or postmarked on or before May 1, 2012. Only complete applications, including requested support materials, will be considered.

Applying by email: Applications by email are preferred. E-mail Application Part I and Application Part II to info@ncstrawberry.com as attachments. Put your name in the title of each file, e.g. "SarahSmithPart1.pdf" and "SarahSmithPart2.doc". References may be emailed as attachments and must include your name as part of the file name, e.g. "SarahSmithReference1". References may be submitted directly by the person supplying the reference rather than from you as part of a complete packet.

Applying by mail: Reference letters may be submitted by you or separately by the person supplying the reference. It is your responsibility to make sure these references are sent and that they are received by deadline. Mail complete application to:

North Carolina Strawberry Association, Inc.
Attn: Scholarship Committee
1138 Rock Rest Rd.
Pittsboro, NC 27312

Notification: The NCSA Scholarship Committee is composed of strawberry farmers, and the month of May is harvest season and a busy time. Please be patient! All candidates will be notified when awards have been decided.

Questions: Call (919) 542-4037 during normal business hours or e-mail info@ncstrawberry.com.
